Dedication

Mrs. Therrien

The Class of 2010 is honored to dedicate its Senior yearbook to Mrs. Therrien. Mrs. Therrien has devoted 15 years of her life to teaching at St. Bernard's CCHS, and we are proud to have her as an educator to our school community. As Department Head for World Languages, her French and Spanish classes are not only rich in the languages she teaches but in the history, culture and life lessons taught within her classroom. Her lighthearted ways spring happiness to those she teaches as well as her colleagues she works with. With two beautiful daughters and a loving husband, the admiration she receives at St. Bernard's extends for her at home from her family. Mrs. Therrien's involvement within the school outside the classroom demonstrates her commitment to St. Bernard's. She has served as an advisor to several successful graduated classes from St. Bernard's and is currently an advisor to the Class of 2010. As an advisor, she has spent hours helping plan fund-raisers, dances and school spirit activities. She is an active member with Music Ministry and her gift of singing is always a delight to hear during school masses. In past years, Mrs. Therrien has served as advisor to French Club as well as the Tennis Team, revealing her evident loyalty to the students at St. Bernard's. With a Masters Degree in Foreign Language, not only does she speak the foreign tongues with exceptional eloquence, but she demonstrates actions with extraordinary compassion, dedication and cheer. It is our pleasure to have the Dedication of the 2009-2010 Yearbook awarded to Mrs. Therrien. Merci and Gracias!

Demolition of the Convent

It was hard for students to avoid looking out the window at the extensive demolition that was going on at the Summer Street side of the St. Bernard's campus. Since the ice storm of last year, preparations were made for razing the convent building, which had been a venerable feature of the campus since 1920. The step-by-step process of dismantling the building and carting away the debris was finally completed in December 2009. For weeks students curiously watched gigantic backhoes devouring the ninety-year-old building. Although we mourn its passing as a monument to a bygone era, the campus is pleasantly renewed with a fresh green expanse of lawn and a sleek new faculty parking lot.

The building was originally a residence for a wealthy family. Its remaining garage originated as a carriage house. The property was later given to St. Bernard's Church in 1920, and became the home of the Sisters of the Presentation who founded St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School. The last headmaster to live in the building was Father Thomas Sullivan from 1990 to 1996. When it was no longer a religious residence, the first floor of the building was used to facilitate Development Office meetings and St. Bernard's Art Department while the middle portion of the building served as a homeless shelter.

Although the building was a notable historic site, repairs and ongoing maintenance would have been a costly venture. The building finally succumbed to last winter's ice storm; its broken pipes and power outages led to the insurance company's determination that it had to be torn down. Yet, out of loss comes opportunity as St. Bernard's decided to make the best of the situation. With the convent building gone, the grounds have been landscaped and a new faculty parking lot paved.

Construction began smoothly until an unmarked water pipe was struck sending a flood of water into the boiler room and cafeteria. The effect was surreal with the cafeteria floor looking especially lustrous until it was noticed the wastebaskets were floating. Thankfully, the problem was handled quickly and efficiently by hiring a company to drain the water and air out any possibility of mold. The School now has plans to replace the cafeteria floor.

St. Bernard's headmaster, James Conry, is now developing plans to establish Presentation Park on the grounds where the convent once stood. The Park will be dedicated to the Sisters of the Presentation. It is a promise to preserve St. Bernard's remembrance of them and the contribution they have made in establishing the tradition and history of the School. Additional plans include replacing the stairs that lead up to the auditorium, landscaping around the parking lot, and removing an underground oil tank to accommodate the installation of a gas line so that oil or gas can be used to heat the building.

The School has lost a piece of its history, at least something that was materially significant. The convent certainly was a monument to the past when Catholic schools were endowed with the formidable presence of those who found their vocations in Christ. Yet, new monuments can preserve old memories. Presentation Park will ensure that St. Bernard's will carry the good Sisters along with it, as it celebrates a new look, a new face toward the future.

Remember noise all the
in the Fall!

Class of 2011

Junior Year

Class of 2011 Advisors Ms. Lynette White and Mr. Steven Spiegel

Junior Class Officers President Adam Cloutier, Vice President Tyler Fabiano, Historian Shelby Pelletier, Treasurer Arietta Rigopoulos, Senator Brett Franciosi, Secretary Rachel Fratantonio, and Class Representative Cortney McLaren

Junior Year is when we really start to come together as a class, especially during our Junior Ring Ceremony in November. Just before Thanksgiving, we unite with our parents and St. Bernard's to celebrate our identity as the class of 2011, expressing our gratitude to everyone who has helped us along the way. By springtime, the prom brings us together with the seniors, as we consider that soon we will be seniors ourselves.

Academics become increasingly important Junior Year as we start to prepare for college, beginning to recognize our interests, gifts, and talents. Of course fundraising is crucial this year as we look forward to developing our own Senior Prom next year. We are upperclassmen now, so it's time to step up, not only for ourselves but, to serve as examples for others.

Sophomore Year

Sophomore Year was an exciting year at St. Bernard's. During the fall we ordered our Class of 2012 t-shirts. Then, we had a great time at our volleyball tournament. Participation was strong and competition was fierce. Throughout the year we planned for our Sophomore BBQ. This was an event that we looked forward to all year. In May, we ordered our class rings in preparation for our junior year ring ceremony. This year marks a change for us as we are halfway through high school.

The Hand of God AT Work!

Intelligent, handsome and caring, with a tremendous sense of humor! How blessed we are with this child! What a gift to the World!

You will accomplish great things, Brian. We wish you joy and success in all you do. Where ever life takes you, know that you are loved!

Always and Forever,

Mom, Dad, Liz, Jim and Joshua

To Drew,

My Son

When you were born the stars shone bright,
A tiny perfect, wondrous sight.

The babe became a growing boy,
Meeting life with cries of joy,

from awkward steps to reading books,
Games with balls and baiting hooks.

As years went by, a man appeared,
Loved and nurtured through the years.

With honest eyes he views the day,
A caring heart is there to stay.

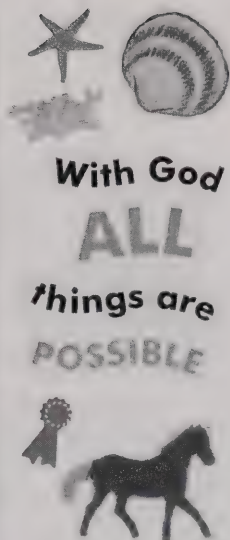

A silent strength, an active mind,
A better man is hard to find.

I view him with both love and pride,
for you, my son, in him reside.

Congratulations & all our
Love,
Mom, Dad & Alec

Lauren,

The years have gone by in a flash it seems, and along the way you've filled each day with happy times, memorable achievements, and most of all feelings of love. You never stop finding ways to make each day a kind of adventure filled with laughter and kindness. You always keep going and growing. May your energy and dreams never end. Congratulations and remember, you carry our love with you always and everywhere!

Love. Mom. Dad & Elise

Riley,

Your smile and your joie de vivre
will take you anywhere you want to go!
Take us along in your heart.
We are so proud of you!

All our love,
Mom, Dad,
John, Bryan and Patrick

Nicholas,

What can we say? It has been the best 17 years ever... We are so proud of you Nicholas and all that you have achieved thus far in life... We are looking forward to the future for you, and know anything you set your mind to will be yours... Always walk through life as if you have something to learn and you will. Always remember nothing in life is to be feared. It is only to be understood. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to make a difference in this world... One last thing, remember to... care more than others think is wise;... risk more than others think is safe;... dream more than others think is practical;... expect more than others think is possible... Reach for the stars, and never settle for anything less... We love you so much...

Congratulations Melissa!

We are so proud of all you have achieved. Good Luck in college! May all your dreams come true.

Love, Mom & Dad

Mel, you will always be my best friend and my sister! You are an awesome sister. I love you.

Love, Ally

Melly! I love you! It will be so quiet at home without you! I'll miss you. Have fun at college.

Love, Lindsey

Jamie,

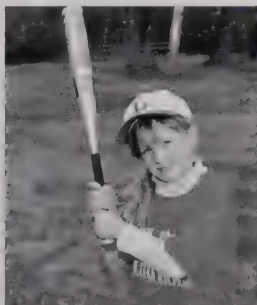

I've watched you grow up from a shy, big blue eyed little girl that I never wanted to let go of, into a beautiful confident young woman. Your smile fills my heart with pride and you are loved by many. Whatever path you choose in life, you will succeed. Sweetheart anytime, any place, if you ever need anything I will be there for you. I thank you for filling my life with meaning. I love you very much.

Your Dad

My baby girl,

Your baby blues, your curly cues, your contagious smile...Jamie you are the light of my life, my heart always feels like it will burst when I see how much you've grown from my shy little curly top girl into such a strong beautiful young woman. Some words of wisdom; believe in yourself, trust your instinct, be kind to yourself and others, choose your words thoughtfully, and always choose love. I will never be far even if you are. I will be here for you always. I love and believe in you. Mom

Congratulations Robert!!

It seems like it was just yesterday that you were going off to your first day of school and here you are graduating from St. B's!

We have watched you grow into a wonderful young man. Through each stage of your growth, you have made us proud - from your compassion to help others all the way to striving to be the best and do the right thing.

You will do well in life and we look forward to being part of it every step of the way.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Jen and John,

We love you both very much and are so proud of you and the special people you have grown up to be! Dare to dream big dreams, always try your best, and you will achieve success. Congratulations to you and the Class of 2010!

Love you more,
Mom and Dad

Katie,
Congratulations on all you have accomplished.
You have become an amazing young woman who is strong, independent, and most importantly have a good heart. You are loving, caring, and always root for the underdog. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to be your parents and brother. You have brought so much happiness and laughter to this family. We have a million memories of all our special family times together.

We have thoroughly enjoyed watching all your years of sports. We will always love you and support you wherever your dreams may take you. All our love, Mom, Dad and Kyle

JULIE

We brought you home on a summer's day surrounded by butterflies. Every day you faced the world with a sunny joy in your heart; and tried to do your best. We are so proud of your accomplishments. May your hopes and dreams inspire you the years ahead. Congratulations!

Gianna,

*I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
 You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
 May you never take one single breath for granted
 God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
 I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
 Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens
 Promise me you'll give faith a fighting chance
 And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
 I hope you dance ... I hope you dance
 I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
 Never settle for the past of least resistance
 Livin' might mean takin' chances, but they're worth takin'
 Lovin' might be a mistake but it's worth makin'
 Don't let some hell-bent heart leave you bitter
 When you come close to sellin' out reconsider
 Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
 And when you get the chance to sit it out or dance
 I hope you dance ... I hope you dance
 Time is a wheel in constant motion always rolling us along.
 Tell me who wants to look back on their years and wonder where those years have gone.
 I hope you dance ... I hope you dance
 I hope you dance*

How do you put into words the joy you have given to us for the last eighteen years? I feel like we've blinked and you've grown from a little girl into an extraordinary young woman. We are so proud of your strength and determination to conquer what life throws your way. Gianna, always be strong in your faith and remember God is always with you. We love you and support you as your new journey begins. Thanks for always making us laugh!
